

Welcome to F30. Every rep here has a purpose and every session leaves you stronger.

F30 stands for Focus 30. It's not another "quick fix" workout. It's a precision-designed 30-minute training system that targets every muscle group, every single day, the kind of session that leaves you knowing you've done something that truly counts.

All you need is a pair of dumbbells, a long loop resistance band, and a small space to move. That's it. Whether you're at home, traveling, or between meetings, if you can find your mat, I'll take care of the rest.

For those 30 minutes, I'll push you. You'll feel your muscles fire, your heart race, and your mind lock in. And when it's done, it won't just feel like a workout it'll feel like 30 minutes of showing up for yourself.
